

*Container of Food Plants competition for Capel Manor Show
22nd September 2007*

This is the schedule and entry form for the “container of food plants” competition at the show. Unlike other categories at the show, this is open to the public. We would ask that all entrants attend on the day.

Description of Entry:

Notes for entrants

What the judges will be looking for:

Entries will be rewarded not only for the best produce but also the most imaginative container. The prize might go to tomatoes growing out of an old shoe, or a windowbox of salad leaves. For more ideas see the shelf life project:

Don't be put off if you have never entered a show before! We want to encourage everyone to show what it is possible to grow in our city

You will be able to drop off your container anytime on Friday 21st September, or before 12noon on Saturday 22nd September. You will then be expected to take the container away before 6pm on the 22nd September. Parking is available at Capel Manor. For the map see www.capel.ac.uk/Gardens/city\_harvest\_festival.html For those bringing containers by public transport, there will be a minibus shuttling people to the site from Turkey Street station on the hour every hour between 10 – 3pm, and from Capel Manor on the half hour between 12.30 – 4.30pm. Turkey Street trains take 30 – 40 mins from Liverpool Street.

The competition is free to enter, although there is a charge to enter the Capel Manor Grounds on the day of the City Harvest festival. For prices see www.capel.ac.uk/Gardens/opening\_times\_and\_fees.html

Members of London Food Link (LFL) and Federation of City Farms and Community Gardens will get in for free. For information on joining LFL see www.sustainweb.org/page.php?id=210

Please return form to Ben Reynolds, London Food Link c/o Sustain, 94 White Lion Street, London N1 9PF by 7th Sept 2007 or email to ben@sustainweb.org
