Growing in the Community
a natural part of the health service

Tuesday 27th October 2015, 10am - 4pm
The Quaker Meeting House, 22 School Lane, Liverpool L1 3BT

Programme

Registration 9.30 - 10am

Chair - Dr Rachael Bragg, Development Coordinator, Care Farming UK and Researcher in Green Care

Morning speakers

- Dr Margi Lennartsson, Growing Health (Garden Organic) Project Manager – Growing Health
- Damien Newman, Thrive Training & Education Co-ordinator – The health and wellbeing benefits of gardening
- Annette James, Head of Children and Young People’s Health Improvement – Public Health, Liverpool City Council – Growing Wellbeing Together
- Clare Olver, Programme Manager, Nature for Health, The Mersey Forest Team – Developing consortia to deliver a commissioned service
- Rachel Summerscales, Hulme Community Garden Centre, Paul Courtney, Professor of Social Economy, Countryside and Community Research Institute, University of Gloucester – Developing an evaluation tool for Hulme Community Garden Centre, the story so far

Lunch

Afternoon speakers

- Becky Snow, Squash Nutrition – Community Growing
- Annie Merry, Faiths for Change, – Gardening and Wellbeing
- Lucy Antal, Sustainable Food City Liverpool Coordinator, Liverpool Food People – Sustaining the City through Growing
- Dave Houghton, Alder Hey Hospital – Hospital in the Park

4pm close

£40 including lunch and refreshments
To book visit http://growinginthecommunity.eventbrite.co.uk