

Dinner From Our Back Garden

Friday 14 September
6pm - 8.30pm
Melior Street Garden, SE1 3QP

Team London Bridge, Sustain, The Table Café and St Mungo's Putting Down Roots invite you to join us for a very special pop up dinner to celebrate the end of Urban Food Week 2012.

Produce from the Melior Street Garden, grown by the Putting Down Roots project, will be cooked up on site in the growing space by The Table Café, and drinks featuring Tower Bridge honey and freshly picked ultra-local herbs will be served. BYO alcohol or a choice of organic wines can be bought on the night (no corkage costs).

Tickets £10 each (which includes a meal and one drink), by donation to Putting Down Roots through Just Giving at www.justgiving.com/TeamLondonBridge. Bring a print-out of your Just Giving receipt with you on the night. Then let Team London Bridge know your contact details by emailing events@teamlondonbridge.co.uk

We hope that you can join us!

URBAN FOOD WEEK

What is Urban Food Week?

This week of activities, from 10-16 September, is to highlight the importance of buying and eating local food, urban growing and planting forage for bees, and to celebrate the fantastic food being produced by community projects - like Putting Down Roots - in our city. For more on Urban Food Week go to www.ethicaleats.org.

Team London Bridge

Working with our business members, our mission is to; provide services, information, connections and support to make London Bridge the capital's best managed and desirable business destination.
