

UKIP response to SOS Food Standards question on school food standards

"There is no reason whatsoever why Academies should be treated differently from other state schools; the fact that they may have an academic specialism in one area should not mean any difference in food quality. UKIP's principle in our Manifesto is that all state schools should be treated equally".